Tuesday 27 April	GAME ON FOR GENDER JUSTICE! PLAY TO MEASURE WHAT MATTERS FOR CLIMATE ACTION SESSION
	TBC
	Play the Count Me In! Game and experience the value of individual level measurement and how understanding how people experience climate impacts and resilience differently is key to tackling the climate crisis.
Wednesday 28 April	RECLAIMING POWER & TRANSFORMING LIVES: INCLUSIVE DATA AS A TOOL FOR RESISTANCE AND DISRUPTION
	4:00pm-5:30pm
	A powerful conversation on how inclusive data can be a tool for resistance, disruption, and transformation. This interactive session will bring together diverse voices — from young leaders to government representatives and community data advocates — to reimagine systems that truly centre people. Organised by the Inclusive Data Working Group.
27 April -	COME VISIT US AT THE EXHIBITION PAVILION BOOTH E20
30 April	ALL DAY
	Connect with the iCount Coalition at our interactive booth to talk all things inclusive data. Come by and play the Count Me In! card game to measure what matters (and win some fun merch), plus take your photo with characters from the game and join the conversation about what happens what data doesn't tell the full story!
